exclusively for lawyers and "sergeants" no office to cost more than fifteen dollars a month. As the Courts are to remain temporarily in their new quarters, the Government will have to pay for the rent covered by the value of the land. Just now lawyers are paying 100 dollars a month for any miserable little room in private houses they can snap up in vicinity of the Courts.

The great pressure in salting the new Belgian Minister to this country was Van Bruynel, formerly first Secretary Legation, and who has so deservedly been promoted to the higher post, which will enable him to create and salt the tags of his own country and this. At this commercial relations with Belgium are most important, and, accordingly, the new Minister will present credentials to Vice President Lathrop.

At last a good word for the Father of the Nation.

Legay can be said. Three times filters at the Rodolphe are the same as crystal, instead of being duckey-and here the paper score so painfully familiar.

There is a case of Josephine, and in Calle. Countess, and the victim was an Italian named Maria, confessed before she died that on Monday had eaten and drank not wisely. I will. It was, probably, not cholera.

Amongst the troops of the Garrison, reported.
